

FRANK GOTCH

Retains Title of Champion
Wrestler of the World.

RUSSIAN LION EASY PREY FOR FARMER

Gotch Keeps Hackenschmidt From Wrestling Honors.

Chicago, Sept. 5.—George Hackenschmidt, the Russian lion, out-fought at every point, laid down his hope of the world's wrestling championship to Frank Gotch. The first fall came in 14 minutes, 18 1-5 seconds on a reverse body hold and wrist lock. The second fall came in 5 minutes, 32 1-5 seconds, Gotch using his famous toe hold that won him the championship three years ago.

Hackenschmidt, untrained, was hog-fat. He had no chance whatever. He was a beaten man when he entered the ring. Gotch, trained to the minute, and seeming the acme of physical perfection, beat Hackenschmidt at every point of the game. The masterful strength which Hack was supposed to possess did not show to advantage when Gotch only clasped the lion. The Iowa farmer was simply too good for the Russian. He pitted physical strength against a man who had practically no strength. The result was inevitable.

Spins Russian Around.

The second and final fall came so quickly that the great crowd failed to appreciate the fact that the match was ended. The wrestler had sparred for an opening. Like a flash Gotch caught the Russian around the legs, spun him around and dropped him on his stomach. Gotch's head was at the lion's feet, his legs were wrapped about Hack's body. He worried the Russian for a few moments about the legs and then in a twinkling threw both hands around Hack's left foot. There was a quick sharp twist. A look of intense pain passed over Hack's face. He sought to break; he sought to tear his pained leg from Gotch's grip, but the Iowa farmer was too strong. He twisted again and Hack gave up. Referee Smith's hands fell on Gotch's shoulders and the Humboldt farmer still was the world's champion.

Referee Smith announced just before the match began that at the request of Chief of Police McWeeney and President Comisky all bets were called off.

Motion to Revoke Suspension of Sentence of Lee.—

Saturday afternoon at an hour that it was inaccessible to the Banner for publication that day a motion was filed by Prosecuting Attorney Cromley asking that the suspension of sentence of Michael T. Lee be revoked. It is expected that Judge Wickham will be here Thursday of this week on other court business, and the motion may be submitted to him at that time. The motion is as follows.

Now comes the plaintiff, L. T. Cromley, prosecuting attorney of Knox county, O., and moves the court to reverse the sentence heretofore pronounced against the defendant, Michael T. Lee, by revoking the suspension of sentence of imprisonment heretofore ordered at this term of court in this case, and now put into execution said sentence of five years in the Ohio penitentiary at Columbus, of the convict Michael T. Lee, for the following reasons:

1. That said original suspension of sentence of imprisonment was without authority and unwarranted.

2. That in no event was the convict Michael T. Lee a fit subject for a suspended sentence in the above case, said Lee already being under a suspended sentence from the November term of Court, A. D., 1907, conditioned on "his good behavior and this refraining from further violation of the criminal statutes of Ohio."

3. That said Lee's conduct since the suspension of sentence of imprisonment in the within case, has been vicious and immoral.

FAIR BOARD

Not Responsible For The Aeroplane Fiasco Monday

Mt. Vernon, O., Sept. 5.
Editor Banner:

The people of Knox county are perfectly disgusted, as they have a perfect right to be, over the fake aeroplane flight at Hiawatha park. Never in the history of the park has there been so large and disappointed lot of patrons, at the failure of the aeroplane man to make good his word that he had selected the place to go up and also to go out of the park. He had been here several days and ought to have made a test and known whether he could make the flight, but instead waited at the park until 4 o'clock and then made a fake fly of a few hundred yards not over fifteen feet from the ground at any time, finally landing in a few bushes about five hundred yards from his starting point, and the disappointed crowd dispersed and went to their homes in no very amiable mood.

I have heard many mutterings about it hurting our coming Knox county fair. If this is so it certainly is a disgrace to Knox county. The Knox county fair was started by me, and while I now am not an officer of the society I am a citizen of Knox county interested in seeing a good fair every year. It is an institution that every man, woman and child in the county ought to boost in every way possible. Not a single member of the fair board or its officers had a thing to do with the Labor day exercises and to censure or in any way injure the fair next week would be a stigma upon old Knox.

Now, good people, if you have any revenge or wrongs to avenge place it where it belongs—don't injure one of the best enterprises in the county and one you are all interested in. Don't knock, but boost the fair and come every day, for it will be a hummer this year.

Very truly,
LeROY G. HUNT.

HIAWATHAS

Changed Line Up And Lost Two Games Of Ball

The Hiawatha team lost two games to Pataskala at that place on Monday Labor Day. The line-up was shifted, nearly every man playing in a foreign position. Sullivan was behind the bat, Whittington on 2nd and Popham in center field. The rest of the men were switched from their regular positions and as a result a very poor article of ball was put up. The first game was an 11 to 6 loss and the second stood 2 to 0 in favor of the Pataskala team. An effort will be made to secure a game with that team on the local grounds.
